

Education and studying

Introduction

- Level: B1
- Skills: Writing
- Topics: Vocabulary
- Merging subjects and soft skills related to the enigma: Critical-thinking

The enigma

- Keywords

Crossword puzzle

- Toolbox

Online crossword puzzle maker, paper, pen

- Description of the enigma

Students will be given a worksheet with crossword puzzles to complete. All questions are going to be related to school and education. Once they complete the crossword puzzles correctly teachers will ask a very simple question as a hint: What do you get at your school? In this way students are going to find the clue and after that they are going to read a short passage about a boy who got bad mark at school and the number that stands for the mark will be number that opens the lock.

Education and studying

Complete the puzzle below! When you are finished I am going to ask you a very simple question - What do you get at your school?

Example:

Players need to complete crossword puzzles related to education and studying in order to get the clue.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

①

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

②

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

③

--	--	--	--

④

- 1.Science subject at school
- 2.Last day of school
- 3.You cannot do it without a pen
- 4.You can find it in the library

Education and studying

Solution

① c h e m i s t r y

② g r a d u a t i o n

③ w r i t i n g

④ b o o k

The secret message is: What do you get at your school? and the answer should be a clue:
MARK After this students will read a short passage and find the number for the mark since it is going to be about a boy who got a bad mark at school.

Hints: What do you get at your school?

More information

Possible restrictions

Students with Dysgraphia may encounter some problems.

