The enigma

- Keywords

This activity will focus on the use of modal verbs for advice, permission, and bans. The players will need to guess what is expressed in four pictures in a quiz and will only access the next clue if they get them all right.

- Toolbox

Tablet or similar device

- Description of the enigma

The players would find a quiz to answer on a tablet or similar device. The quiz can be created on Google Forms or any other app or chatbot. The introductory guideline would prompt students to use modal verbs to express the advice, permission, or ban represented on the images they will see.

Permission and signs

QUIZ EXAMPLE:

Prompt: What type of verb do you use to express advice, permission, or ban? Use them in sentences to give advice to someone else.

1.

□ Solution: You cannot smoke.

2.

□ Solution: You have to stop. / You must stop.

3.

□ Solution: You should eat fruit and vegetables.

Permission and signs

4. □ Solution: You cannot take pictures.

Make sure you activate the validation of their answers on the Google form, app, or chatbot so that they can only access the clue at the end if they get all the answers right.

Hints

If they don't understand what they have to use, ask them questions to make them understand that they have to use modal verbs, such as "what do you say to your friend when you see that sign?"
