

The message

Introduction

- Level: B2
- Skills: Reading and Writing
- Topics: Grammar – reported speech
- Merging subjects: problem-solving, critical thinking

The enigma

- Keywords

The participants have to transform the sentences from direct speech to reported speech. To do so, they need to put the word cards in order to form the correct sentence.

- Toolbox

Cards

The message

- Description of the enigma

Material to print:

a book.	She asked me	was reading	"I am reading a book", he explained. ----- "Where do you live?", she asked me. ----- "Learning English is easy", they told us. ----- "Do you like chocolate?", the boy asked me.
that he	asked me if	where I lived.
The boy	They told us	that learning English
was easy.	I liked chocolate.	He explained

Solution

He explained that he was reading a book.

She asked me where I lived.

They told us that learning English was easy.

The boy asked me if I liked chocolate.

The message

More information

Possible restrictions

Mixing words can be more difficult for students with learning disorders.

References

- ✓ <https://www.teach-this.com/images/resources/double-trouble.pdf>

